Re: Petition for Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements

For reasons set forth below, Harmony Hill Baptist Church hereby requests an undue burden exemption from the closed captioning rules for closed captioning our worship services, pursuant to FCC 79.1(f) of the Commission's rules.

I. Introduction

- A. Background of Harmony Hill Baptist Church: Our mission is to reach the city of Lufkin and surrounding areas with the message of Jesus Christ. Our church was founded in 1913 and has grown to a membership in excess of 1000 members.
- B. The program we seek to broadcast to our community is our worship services including music and sermons. Being able to broadcast by television will allow us to take our message into households where families choose to spend Sunday at home or to households or facilities that house individuals physically incapable of leaving that facility for worship at a church facility.
- C. Each Episode will last one hour and will air on Sunday mornings. Our church will broadcast our worship services approximately twenty six weeks during the year. The episodes will be produced at our church and by our personnel. The viewing area for our broadcasts has the potential to reach in excess of 60,000 people.

II. Nature and Cost of Closed Captions

- A. Efforts to determine cost of closed captioning our programs: I could not locate any reliable service in our city or local area that could help with my questions or production. However I was able to obtain internet costs from one company as follows:
 - $7 - $16 per video minute / equates to an average of $600 per one hour episode. I have attached a printout of these rates.

III. Impact on the Operation of the Church

The cost of our in-house production without closed caption is estimated at $100. We have a salaried Technology Director that produces and edits our programs as a part of his job description. There is however, no credible process for determining the cost of this portion of his job description. If the cost is $100, and the cost of outsourcing closed captioning is $600 per episode, this would equate to a 600% increase in our cost to produce one episode. Therefore the cost for 26 episodes per year would approximate to $18,000.

IV. Financial Resources of our church

- A. Harmony Hill Baptist Church is a 501(c)3 tax-exempt organization. An attachment documenting us as a member church of the Southern Baptist Convention is attached. Also attached are our organization's exemption documents.
- B. A copy of our 2005 Balance Sheet and Financial Report is attached.
- C. Our Church's only source of income is from free-will offerings of individuals.
- D. Our distributor, Television Station KTRE, was unable to assist our church with closed captioning since they do not possess the necessary equipment to produce our programs with closed captioning.

V. Type of Operations of Harmony Hill Baptist Church

Our operations and activities include worship services, Christian education, financial assistance to impoverished persons, financial assistance to community aid organizations such as the Salvation Army, disaster relief activities and housing for hurricane or other disaster victims, and family counseling. As a church we also perform weddings, funerals, and we are a voting place for the precinct in which we are located. We also assist a Hispanic Mission Church. We are a not-for-profit religious institution.

VI. Other Factors

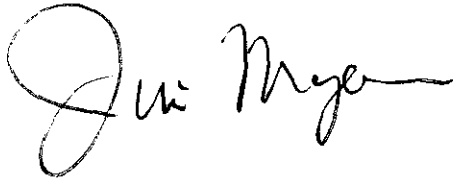

Petitioner believes that the local non-news exemption to the closed captioning rules also applies to our worship service programs. As noted above, the program is produced and distributed locally, and the sermons of Harmony Hill Baptist Church are of primary local interest. The episodes are not news, they do not have repeat value, and the electronic newsroom technique is not available. Notwithstanding the applicability of the exemption, we have filed this petition in an abundance of caution and for the purpose of establishing certainty.

VII. Conclusion

As shown by this petition and its attachments, the Commission should grant a waiver of the closed captioning requirements in this case, because requiring closed captioning would create an undue burden. The cost of captioning would be excessively high and would have a significant impact on Petitioner's operations. The Petitioner's type of operations and financial resources are different in kind and magnitude from a mainstream programming provider. Because of the significant difficulty and expense of providing closed captions, a waiver under FCC 79.1(f) is warranted. If more information is needed, please contact me at the address provided above.

Respectfully submitted,

Aberdeen Captioning

committed to the WORD

Aberdeen Captioning is a full-service captioning company. Our goal is to establish an ongoing, long-term, working relationship with you. We are dedicated to providing you with exceptional service and 100 percent satisfaction guarantee.

Give us a call!

WHY CAPTION?

Other than having to comply with the FCC mandate that requires the following number of broadcast hours to be captioned per day: 10 hours as of 1/1/02, 15 hours as of 1/1/04 and 20 hours as of 1/1/06, captioning is the only way the deaf are able to become a more complete part of the entertainment industry. The National Association of the Deaf reports that more than 28 million Americans have a hearing loss. Captioning your program can potentially increase your audience by 10 percent.

Captioning a program reaches beyond the deaf and hearing-impaired. Over 30 million people are learning English as a second language, 27 million adults are improving their literacy skills and 10 million elementary school children are learning to read. Captioning helps them all improve their language skills.

Don't miss this giant opportunity to reach over 93 million Americans!!!!

POST-PRODUCTION

Post-production captioning is the process of transcribing a program's dialogue and placing it into a new master tape in the form of open captions, closed captions or subtitles.

Closed Captions (roll-up or pop-on) [CC]

A decoding device is required to open these captions for viewing. Captions are recorded on line 21 of the tape and are made visible by using a decoder. All televisions, 13 inches or larger, built after 1993 are required to have a built-in decoder.

Open Captions (roll-up or pop-on)

Open captions look identical to closed captions but no decoding device is required to view these captions. The captions are "burned" into the video tape allowing captions to be visible whenever the video is played.

Subtitles

Subtitled differs from open or closed captioning by the way that it is presented on the screen. It appears in upper and lower case letters and can appear in various colors and fonts. It is also "burned" into the video and is visible at all times.

Webcasts and Video CDs

A caption file is created from an encoded video. The caption file is synchronized with the video and played on Windows Media Player, Quick Time or Real Player.

DVDs

A single DVD disk can contain subtitles in up to 32 different languages. Subtitles can be produced in every language, using any Windows TrueType font. A DVD disk can also contain closed captions in up to six languages: English, Spanish, French, Portuguese, German and Dutch.

REAL-TIME (LIVE) CAPTIONING

Real-time captioning is the process of transcribing a program's dialogue, with an accuracy rate of at least 98 percent, and making the text immediately viewable. This is used for live presentations and live television broadcasts...

- Newscasts
- Corporate Meetings
- Public Events
- Sporting Events
- Convention
- Church Services

What will I receive?

- You will receive 2 tapes: your original master and a copy of the master with captions encoded

Dear Applicant:

We have considered your application for a group exemption letter recognizing your subordinates as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as organizations of the type described in section 501(c)(3).

Our records show that you were recognized as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Your exemption letter remains in effect.

Based on information you supplied, we recognize your subordinates whose names appear on the list you submitted as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Additionally, we have classified the organizations that you operate, supervise, or control, and that are covered by your notification to us, as organizations that are not private foundations because they are organizations of the type described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to your subordinates as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to your subordinates or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of section 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Your subordinates are not required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, if they qualify as churches or integrated auxiliaries of churches or otherwise meet the exceptions in section 1.6033-2(g) of the Income Tax Regulations.

Your subordinates are required to make their annual information return, Form 990 or Form 990-EZ, available for public inspection for three years after the later of the due date of the return or the date the return is filed. You and your subordinates are also required to make available for public inspection your group exemption application, any supporting documents and this exemption letter. Copies of these documents are also required to be provided to any individual upon written or in person request without charge other than reasonable fees for copying and postage. You may fulfill this requirement by placing these documents on the Internet. Penalties may be imposed for failure to comply with these requirements. Additional information is available in Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization, or you may call our toll free number shown above.

Letter 2419 (DO/CG)

SOUTHERN BAPTIST OF TEXAS

Your subordinates are not required to file federal income tax returns unless subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. Each organization subject to this tax must file Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your subordinates' present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

As of January 1, 1984, each of your subordinates is liable for social security (FICA) taxes for each employee to whom the subordinate paid $100 or more during a calendar year. This does not apply, however, to any subordinate that makes or has made a timely election under section 3121(w) of the Code to be exempt from such tax. Your subordinates are not liable for tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Each year, at least 90 days before the end of your annual accounting period, please send the items listed below to the Internal Revenue Service Center at the address shown below.

1. A statement describing any changes during the year in the purposes, character, or method of operation of your subordinates;
2. A list showing the names, mailing addresses (including Postal ZIP codes), actual addresses if different, and employer identification numbers of subordinates that, since your previous report:
 - a. Changed names or address;
 - b. Were deleted from your roster; or
 - c. Were added to your roster.
3. For subordinates to be added, attach:
 - a. A statement that the information on which your present group exemption letter is based applies to the new subordinates;
 - b. A statement that each has given you written authorization to add its name to the roster;
 - c. A list of those to which the Service previously issued exemption rulings or determination letters;
